

INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE REVIEW

Editor: René Oudeweg

Bulletin #42: Press Review: Ukraine War in Kursk

TASS:

🕒 Developments in the Kursk Region:

- The Ukrainian armed forces have lost up to 400 servicemen and 17 armored vehicles over the day in the Kursk Region
- In total, the Ukrainian armed forces lost 5,137 servicemen, 69 tanks, 27 infantry fighting vehicles, 55 armored personnel carriers, 350 armored combat vehicles
- Russian servicemen took out a Ukrainian armed forces sabotage and reconnaissance unit near Kamyshevka
- Units of the Northern battlegroup, supported by army aviation and artillery fire, repelled attacks by Ukrainian assault groups in the direction of the settlements of Borki and Malaya Loknya. They also foiled attacks in the direction of Komarovka, Korenevo, Martynovka and Russkaya Konopelka
- Russian troops struck Ukrainian troop clusters and equipment near Apanasovka, Alexandriya, Vishnevka, Guyevo, Mikhailovka, Lyubimovka, Malaya Loknya, Plekhovo, Snagost and Yuzhny
- Russian aircraft struck areas where enemy reserves were amassing personnel and military equipment near Aleksandrovka, Bachevsk, Bunyakino, Vorozhba, Glukhov, Kamenka, Miropolye, Mogritza, Novaya Sloboda, Obody, Pervomayskoye, Pavlovka, Svessa, Seredina-Buda and Tolstodubovo in the Sumy Region
- The Russian military prevents enemy units from pulling forces to the Kursk direction, Major General Apty Alaudinov, deputy chief of the Russian Armed Forces' Main Military-Political Department and commander of the Akhmat special forces commando unit, said
- About 2,000 people have left the Kursk Region's border districts over the past two days, Emergencies Ministry deputy spokesman Artyom Sharov said